

Albert Court (2017)

Client: Albert Court

Project Value:

Scope of Works

Winters continue, after more than ten years working at the property, to undertake Electrical and Emergency Lighting Maintenance, also repairs and upgrades of the lighting and electrical installation.

Winters continue to work at this prestigious London property. This stunning Grade 2 listed mansion block, from early 20th century in South Kensington, London SW7, was built next to Royal Albert Hall, designed by R.J. Worley, and finished between 1896 and 1900. Winters carry out regular planned maintenance visits for the emergency lighting systems, and have undertaken repairs and upgrades to the electrical services and central battery systems.
